We will help you succeed:

Pre-event training to help prepare your booth, establish objectives and plan for networking

Pre-event advertising from the chamber with promotions to share with clients and prospects

Networking areas throughout the venue for more in depth connections

"The 2007 Business Market Place was by far the place to be! While smaller in size we made at least twice the amount of good contacts. We had time to spend talking to prospective clients and felt that we had a very productive show in contrast to previous years. We will be back for sure in 2008 and look forward to continued improvements and many more great contacts and increased business."
